PAUL COSTA TO HEADLINE THE ENTERTAINMENT AT THE LANDCARE NSW AWARDS GALA DINNER

The massive announcements keep coming for the NSW Landcare and Local Land Services conference with Country Music Hands of Fame inductee, Paul Costa booked to headline the Landcare NSW Awards Gala Dinner.

The Landcare NSW Awards Gala Dinner will highlight some amazing individuals and groups who are working to care for the country.

It will also give delegates an opportunity to kick their heels up and enjoy a fabulous evening of networking over dinner, drinks and entertainment, highlighted by Paul Costa.

Costa, who is a four time Golden Guitar nominee, has released five studio albums and is looking forward to playing all his hit songs at the showpiece event of the conference.

“When the opportunity came to play at this conference in Broken Hill I jumped at it,” Mr Costa said.

“It’s going to be one hell of a night and I can’t wait for it to come around.”

For the first time in its 20 year history, the conference is heading to the far west and will be held in Broken Hill from 22 – 24 October.

In addition to the Landcare NSW Awards Gala Dinner, a number of other social events have been organised for the conference, including:

- country music superstar Sara Storer who will perform at the iconic Silverton Hotel with her brother, Greg Storer
- the conference will be wrapped up by an optional dinner at the Palace Hotel, featuring drag entertainment by the glamorous Shelita Buffet and Christina KneesUp.

Registration for the conference can be made at www.nswlandcareconference.com.au.
